

International Freight

Written by □□□□

Monday, 15 October 2018 06:06 - Last Updated Thursday, 27 June 2019 06:27

---

International Air Freight is also called International Air Cargo. It's a service between airport to airport .Nowadays,more and more importers and exporters from around the world rely on International Air Freight.GuangZhou XieDa is professional with many foreign countries import rules and regulations ,the methods of shipping ,and the documents related to the shipping .Here is the process after an air freight shipment is ready .

A.We will arrange to pick up the shipment from customers warehouse in China.

B.We will negotiate with the air carriers and provide routing options to our customers according to the volume and types of goods ,and book the cargo space with air carriers.

C.We will work with our customers to ensure that the products being shipped are in compliance with the destination country's regulations .

D.We will provide instructions on paking and labeling to make sure that the products arrive safely.

E.We will submit the appropriate documentation suck as Bill of Loading ,Commercial Invoice or Certificate of Origin .

F.We will provide the real-time updates to the shipper and the consignee .

